The weekend began on Friday evening and participants gathered in the All Saints Camp Dining Hall. Chilly weather was fended off with a cozy fire as they ate dinner. Following dinner, participants relaxed playing board games and chatting by the fire as they got to know each other.

On Saturday, participants worked on various service projects around the camp, as they do each year. After lunch and a relaxing afternoon, the group listened to a presentation from Subdeacon Paul Abernathy, Director of FOCUS Pittsburgh. He discussed the theme, “Am I My Brother’s Keeper?” and its relationship to the work FOCUS Pittsburgh does in the Western Pennsylvania Community. The organization provides for the basic needs of residents of some of the most economically depressed areas of the city. They also provide assistance to those who are looking for job training, resume building, and other work related skills. Mr. Abernathy stressed the need to get to know your brothers before being able to truly help them. He also highlighted those young adults and professionals in the community that have taken extraordinary measures to help FOCUS in their work.

The evening speaker, Fr. Dn. John Charest discussed the biblical origination of our theme. He explained that the answer to the question “Am I my brother’s keeper” is a fairly obvious yes, but cautioned that it can be easy to feel confident that we have done enough to help our brothers, despite the fact that there are many people who need our help and we have much to give. He challenged the group to not settle for “good enough” when it comes to reaching out to and helping our brothers. The third speaker for the weekend was Fr. Dn. Dennis Lapushansky who also discussed the theme “Am I my brother’s keeper” and other biblical ideas about helping others. He opened a dialogue amongst the group about the theme that also led to questions and answers from our participants who were new to Orthodoxy.

I mostly took away from the Sobor was the meaning of the Sobor’s theme – “Am I my brother’s keeper?” and its relationship to the work of the Ukrainian Orthodox League. His Eminence Metropolitan Antony, during his opening remarks to the Sobor participants, defined this theme as measuring “our degree of responsibility” for others besides ourselves. And indeed, upon hearing the various reports of the Church’s Offices of Ministry and her central organizations, including that of the UOL, it was evident that each Office and organization does sincerely attempt to work toward this responsibility.

This task is not without its obstacles, however. As was reported by the Consistory Treasurer, finances are always an issue. The various ministries of the Church and the upkeep of the Metropolia Complex are extensive and endlessly in need of funds to operate. And, to be truly “our brother’s keeper,” our Hierarchs encouraged us to reach out to others to join us in our Faith and spirituality as Orthodox Christians. Although this is not always an easy task, reaching out to those beyond our parish borders may ultimately increase our membership to strengthen our Church and her ministry. We were also reminded that the task of keeping our youth within the Church, and most importantly within our Faith, is another dimension of the responsibility of all of us.

As was listening to the sessions of the Sobor, I took note that in its own way the UOL, with its motto “Dedicated to our Church, Devoted to its Youth,” has taken up the task of being a Keeper. Throughout the Sobor, the UOL had a visible and dynamic presence: the UOL Report to the Sobor; the remarks of the Senior and Junior UOL Presidents to the Sobor body; donating $2,000 to the fund to benefit the Pokrova Parish of Philadelphia after the devastating fire; a showing of the newly created UOL promotional video; presentation of Epitrakhyl to the newly ordained Reverends Matlak, Dovgan, and Pasakas; and an invitation to all to join us at the 67th Annual UOL Convention in South Bound Brook.

It was evident that our work is always done with the goal of supporting our Church, but it is also evident that we will need to create new and better avenues for strengthening our UOL, our Church, and the communities around us. We, as members of the UOL, have the responsibility of continually asking ourselves “Am I my brother’s keeper?”

but because of the restraints in their theology, they have no cogent explanation. Protestants have a difficult time in dealing with Mary at best. Holding that she didn’t have the knowledge to explain or defend our usage, except that it was of ancient origin. The phrase was “most holy Birthgiver of God, save us.” I didn’t have the knowledge to explain or defend our usage, except that it was of ancient origin.

An Evangelical Protestant relative stayed with us recently and came to a couple sacraments be done in the church proper. Only to God, but to the surrounding community as well. Sorry to dissuade you and God with the priest as a witness, takes place in the front of the church than being some private ceremony. Even confession, although private between the priest and the penitent, takes place in a consecrated place. The unity of the whole community present in prayer rather than something as a baptism, but also for funerals and memorial services. What is stressed is the presence of God and His heavenly host in a consecrated place. Again it is not hard to imagine how the ranks of the neediest members of Ukrainian society might swell in such turbulent times as these. This February, the UOL will once again be sponsoring its annual “Souper Bowl Sunday” to benefit the St. Andrew Society, an important part of the ministry of our Archdiocese. Your generous support of the UOL’s “Souper Bowl Sunday” in February will have a positive impact on the lives of our brothers and sisters in Ukraine.

In memory of those who perished in the Holodomor, the UOL has collected $250 in donations for City Harvest, an organization in New York City that provides daily meals for thousands of families. You can still donate to City Harvest through the UOL either online at uol.orthodoxus.org or by sending a check payable to the UOL to Lauren Bentley, UOL Financial Secretary, 818 Barley Sheaf Road, Coatesville, PA 19320.

“For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required.” While we strengthen our own personal faith through our fellowship in the UOL, we combine and multiply our individual efforts through the UOL to do God’s work and alleviate human suffering. Let us pray for peace in Ukraine, and let us continue to support the efforts of organizations like our own St. Andrew Society who care for the least of our brethren, the forgotten among us who let us continue to support the efforts of organizations like our own St. Andrew Society.

We are looking forward to the birth of our new niece and expect that the baptism will take place in the coldest part of the winter. As we have a large commodious home we are proposing that the baptism take place here. A nice blazing fire in the fireplace and the perfect place to hold a reception for just our small family circle. Our parish church is a bit chilly and drafty even with the heat, so we would rather not go there. Our home seems to be the perfect venue, but would there be any objections from the parish?

In an emergency, the baptism can take place anywhere and although I know of instances when the sacrament has been administered in a home setting, it is a practice that is to be totally discouraged. I understand your reasoning and it sounds like it would be quite a cozy situation, but listen to what the age-old wisdom of the church is on this subject.

The Baptism/Chrismation and Communion of the child is not just a private family ceremony, but rather is the integration of the baptized into the saved family of the family of the parish. Not only is the sacrament open to be attended by those prayerfully gathered of that family, but all the instances in the service are geared to expression in a church building. Exorcism prayers at the entrance, then a procession in the church proper, the candles, the anointing, the blessing of the font and the baptism itself all bespeak of a movement in the sacred space, which finds meaningful expression only in a church setting. In the church venue, you are surrounded by icons, a real feeling of the presence of God and His heavenly host in a consecrated place. Again it is a place where the wider church family meets both on happy occasions, such as a baptism, but also for funerals and memorial services. What is stressed is the unity of the whole community present in prayer rather than something which is exclusively private. Yes, Father could bring his little kit and christen, tonsure, chrismate and commune the child, but it is all makeshift at best.

It is only in a mission church situation, where a place for liturgy is only contracted on Sunday, that a home baptism even makes sense, due to the transient nature of being a makeshift and inconvenient setting.

All sacraments are geared to a public expression in the church proper rather than being some private ceremony. Even confession, although private between you and God with the priest as a witness, takes place in the front of the church in full view of all. Although private, to an extent, one is being reconciled not only to God, but to the surrounding community as well. Sorry to dissuade you from your plans, but it is for good reason that the church stresses that sacraments be done in the church proper.

As we experience the hopefulness that comes with the start of a New Year, I trust that you and your families have enjoyed a blessed and happy Christmas. But even as we celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace, we pause to remember those who have suffered from great evil in this sinful world and those among us even today who need our help.

This past November, Ukrainians throughout the world marked the 80th anniversary of the Holodomor, the monstrous genocidal famine engineered by Soviet dictator Josef Stalin that purposely starved to death upwards of 10 million people in Ukraine. At St. Patrick’s Cathedral in New York City, His Eminence Metropolitan Antony, His Grace Bishop Daniel, and His Grace Bishop Paul-Chemnytsky led a Memorial Panakhlya to pray for the repose of the souls of those killed during the Holodomor. A few weeks later, hundreds gathered in Washington, DC to participate in a groundbreaking ceremony for the construction of a memorial in our nation’s capital commemorating the Holodomor. Once again our hierarchs Metropolitan Antony and Bishop Daniel, along with the Most Reverend Metropolitan Archbishop Stefan Soroka, led the participants in a ceremony to bless the endeavor. Among those participating in this important and historic event were ambassadors to the US from Ukraine and several Eastern European countries, former ambassadors from the US to Ukraine, and two current members of Congress.

Even as we are compelled to remember the past, our attention is drawn to current events. Ukraine finds itself in turmoil as hundreds of thousands of protestors have gathered daily in the aftermath of the current Ukrainian government’s decision not to enter into an association agreement with the European Union. On several occasions, violent confrontations between the demonstrators and police have resulted in injuries, prompting our hierarchs to issue a statement condemning the use of force and violence to resolve political issues and directing the clergy and parishes of the UOC of the USA to serve a special Moleben service to pray for Ukraine. His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew also issued a statement praying for peace in Ukraine, invoking “St. Nicholas the Wonderworker, who is celebrated for pacifying stormy seas.”

What can we as UOL members and as Orthodox Christians do in light of current circumstances? Recall the theme of the 20th Regular Sobor of the UOC of USA, which reminds us that we are indeed “our brother’s keeper.” It is not hard to imagine how the ranks of the neediest members of Ukrainian society might swell in such turbulent times as these. This February, the UOL will once again be sponsoring its annual “Souper Bowl Sunday” to benefit the St. Andrew Society, an important part of the ministry of our Archdiocese that provides humanitarian assistance to Ukraine. Check the calendar lately? It’s 2014! And although winter winds are blowing now, in a few short months the weather will be warm and July will be here! Turn your calendar to the July page and circle July 23-27 – the dates of the 67th Annual UOL Convention to be held in South Bound Brook, NJ!

The Convention Committee, that includes members of the surrounding UOL chapters of Northampton, Allentown, Carteret, Maplewood, and South Bound Brook with support from Philadelphia, Coatesville and Wilmington have been planning a great variety of spiritual and social events. Lodging accommodations will be at the Holiday Inn, Somerset at a remarkable and very reasonable rate of $89.00 per night. Business sessions and evening activities will be held at the UCOC Cultural Center.

After checking into the hotel on Wednesday evening, join fellow UOL’ers at a Hospitality Evening hosted by our Maplewood UOL Chapter. The Convention officially begins on Thursday morning as we gather at St. Andrew’s Memorial Church to pray together during Divine Liturgy. Business sessions will begin Thursday afternoon following a brunch at the Cultural Center.

Get your investigative skills tuned up! Thursday evening will be the time for an interactive and, probably hilarious, Mystery Dinner Theater!

Friday’s schedule includes business sessions and a wonderful Cultural Evening. And during the day on Friday, a very special service project is being planned to assist those in the area who are less fortunate. Stay tuned for more details!

Business sessions will wrap up on Saturday morning and will be followed by a Hospitality Picnic hosted by the Assumption of the Virgin Mary UOL Chapter of Northampton. The Northampton chapter will be the hosts of the 68th Annual UOL Convention to be held in July 2015. And as has been our tradition, the UOL Grand Banquet and Ball is scheduled for Saturday evening.

The 67th UOL Convention will conclude with a Hierarchical Divine Liturgy and Farewell Luncheon on Sunday, July 27.

The theme of this Convention – “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be fulfilled” – inspires us to work together for the good of our Church, her Faithful, and all mankind. The Convention Committee hopes that the time spent during July 23-27 will help us focus on furthering the goals of the UOL and enjoy fellowship at the same time!

For us Orthodox, Jesus is the ONLY source of salvation, worked out in the sacrifice and death on the cross and the triumph of His Resurrection.

Surprisingly, although Jesus did save us all, yet says that we must work out our salvation daily. Let us put this in perspective. God freely gave us our salvation, but we are expected to do something as well. We struggle with Satan and can make definite choices to follow the enemy, thus compromising our salvation. There is a possibility, though saved by Jesus, that we might reject and lose such salvation. When we say “most holy, Birthgiver of God, save us,” we are not saying that we are THE ONE who saves us, but here is the nuance, rather that through her prayers and intercessions we will have a change of mind and heart and will return to the path of salvation. Taken in this light and with this explanation, Mary helps us in our daily battle, but she is not the one who ultimately wrought salvation for us.

There is an evolution of doctrine that has been accepted within the Roman Catholic Church that we do not agree with. Some within that church are Protestants may think that we are going down that path, but my explanation of the nuance listed above should correct that gross misinterpretation.

In reading through the New Testament, I was struck by the powerful and poignant story about Annas and Sapphira. What lesson should this give in our modern world?

The story about Annas and Sapphira is not a parable or made up story for effect, but it is about real people and a real sin. God allowed such a thing to happen as a strong object lesson for all succeeding ages. Now Annas and Sapphira were going to freely hand over the proceeds from a property sale...
INTRODUCTION

Once again we are ever mindful that the grace of God has called together the officers and members of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA, gathered with our God-loving bishops: His Eminence Metropolitan Antony, and His Grace Bishop Daniel, to express the gratitude of our church and nation to God, the government, guidance, and spiritual direction. May God bless all of our bishops with good health and fill them with grace for many blessed years.

RESOLUTIONS

1. We affirm our filial love, profound esteem and prayers for His All Holiness Patriarch Bartholomew, Archbishop of New Rome – Constantinople the Mother Church, from which Rus-Ukraine accepted the totality of the Orthodox Christian Faith and Order 1025 years ago during the reign of Prince St. Volodymyr Holy Equal-to-the-Apostles.

2. We offer prayerful support to our Hierarchs in all efforts, through the Ecumenical Patriarchate, to unite the Ukrainian Orthodox Church in Ukraine and strongly encourage His All Holiness Patriarch Bartholomew to intensify efforts to establish a local autocephalous Orthodox Church in Ukraine.

3. We express our support of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of North and Central America in their efforts to create a unity through which all of Orthodoxy may speak with a single voice about issues of life, whether ecclesiastical or temporal, in order to bring Holy Orthodoxy out of the shadows of American Society and into the mainstream life of our nation. We are proud of the fact that our Metropolitan Antony serves as the Treasurer of the Assembly and Chairman of the Committee for Financial Affairs, while Bishop Daniel serves as Chairman of the Committee for Legal Affairs.

4. We continue to be deeply aware of the chronic shortage of clergy in our Holy Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA and truly appreciate the efforts of the St. Sophia Seminary staff in attempting to meet these needs. We acknowledge with profound gratitude the vital ministry of the Staff of Saint Sophia Theological Seminary in the sacred task of priestly formation and education. We rejoice at the good news that there will be two new full time residents for the 2013-2014 Academic Year - Volodymyr Sukanetz and Mazur, who is visiting a monastery and relatives in his native Romania and Chairman of the Committee for Financial Affairs, while Bishop Daniel serves as Chairman of the Committee for Legal Affairs.

5. We honor the Blessed Memory of the ten million men, women and children who perished during the insidious genocide created by Joseph Stalin and the Soviet Government, which ravaged Ukraine from 1932 to 1933. We strongly urge the United Nations to finally declare this horror to be the genocidal act that it was, not bowing to the revisionist history written and being currently written about this time.

6. We applaud the ongoing construction of the Ukrainian Museum of New Jersey – History and Education Complex in Memory of His Holiness Patriarch Mytyslav 1 (HEC) – on the grounds of our Metropolis Center in South Bound Brook/Somerset, New Jersey. We urge the faithful of our Holy Ukrainian Orthodox Church to cooperate in and financially support the completion of this construction.

7. We enthusiastically reaffirm in the 66th year of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA our motto - "Dedicated to our Church and Devoted to its Youth," - and recognize that the fulfillment of this motto is only possible through an intimate relationship with Christ and through a life commensurate with His Holy Gospel, which we accept and live without reservation.

8. We extend special gratitude and appreciation to the members of St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral (Parma, Ohio) and the Senior and Junior National Executive Boards of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA during 2012-2013. May God bless them for their dedication and devoted efforts for the benefit of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA and the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA.

9. We express our most sincere appreciation to those officers who served faithfully on the Senior and Junior National Executive Boards of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA during 2012-2013. May God bless them for their efforts.

The rest of the weekend was quiet and relaxing. The group played volleyball, swam, and socialized on the dining hall porch. The iron chef cook off was a success once again, and we congratulate the winner, Michelle Bryan, for her fantastic Strawberry Pizza dessert.

Before heading home, the group wrote supportive messages in journals that were given to the members of the UOC of USA College Age Mission Trip, to send thoughts and prayers as the Mission Team members travelled to take care of our “brothers” in Ukraine.

We look forward to continued growth at this event!

We also hosted our 24th Annual Thanksgiving Day Open House. After a noon prayer service, we served 100+ free, delicious, home-made, 7-course dinners with dessert to parishioners and community participants. We delivered meals to approximately 30 shut-ins who appreciated our charitable hospitality. Our No Charge, All Are Welcome Thanksgiving Dinners have become widely known throughout the area. Even the mayor of Carnegie, Jack Kobistek, joined in the festivities and assisted in meal delivery. Fr. Steve Repa began this community outreach program 24 years ago as a potluck Thanksgiving Dinner. It has since expanded into what it is now thanks to the generous donations of our parishioners. Howard and Lynda West have chaired these Dinners for the past 15 years putting much of their effort and resources into this charitable event. We give thanks to the Lord for uniting our Parish to provide this wonderful event for so many years. See the pics!

10. We encourage all parishes of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA to establish UOL Chapters with encouragement from our hierarchs and local clergy. We strongly encourage all parishes to expend great efforts and provide support for Senior and Junior UOL Chapters and all UOL programs and activities.

11. We share the joy of our clergy who were ordained to the Holy Deaconate and Priesthood during the past year: Fr. Vasyl Dovygan, Fr. Andrij Matlak, Fr. Vasyl Pasakas and Dn. Philip Harendza – all graduates of St. Sophia Seminary in May of 2013.

12. We celebrate and greatly appreciate All Saints Camp staff and volunteers under the direction of Camp Manager, Eric Senedak and of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church Camping Programs – Teenage Conference, Diocesan Church School Camp, and Mommy/Daddy and Me Camp – all under the direction of the Consistory Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry Director, Natalie Kapeluck Nixon - for their dedicated efforts with the youth and families of our Church. We encourage all parishes, UOL Chapters and faithful to learn more about these ministry programs so that they can enthusiastically support and promote them through prayer, material support and active participation.

13. We as Orthodox Christians repeat our firm belief in the sanctity of life – from the moment of conception to the moment of natural death. Our Lord offered the ultimate sacrifice of love – His very own life on the Cross – for the sake of human life – the crown of His creation. No attempt to destroy life – at any point – can possibly be interpreted as the Will of God. We call for the return of the members of our Ukrainian Orthodox League, the faithful of our Holy Ukrainian Orthodox Church and all Orthodox Christians to prayer and respect for the sanctity of life, which is threatened and destroyed by the anti-Russian secularization of our American society. The example set by true Orthodox Christians for the rest of society can work miracles.

14. We encourage all UOL Chapters to reach out to people of their local communities, including new immigrants from Ukraine and Eastern Europe, inviting them to become faithful and active members of our Church and the Ukrainian Orthodox League.

15. We continue to encourage all UOL Chapters to adopt a nursing home and/or other institutions in their communities spending time each month visiting the residents—especially those bound to their rooms.

16. We recommend that the Council of the Metropolis of the UOC of the USA inform all parishes about plans for: (a) increasing the spiritual growth of our Church, (b) promoting the education of our Orthodox faithful, and (c) addressing current fiscal challenges, in order to encourage parish participation in such endeavors.

17. We abhor the senseless destruction of human life which occurs so frequently in our society today as exemplified by the murders committed by the Boston Marathon bombers and daily violent murder of our young in the inner cities of our country. We must question all forms of media, including television, movie industry, video gaming and internet, among others that seem to provoke this violent behavior on the part of sick individuals.

18. We abhor and condemn the senseless death of innocent people in Syria, Egypt and other countries and pray for the resolution of conflicts. We question how our United States government can support rebels in Syria and Egypt and other countries who place videos of the decapitation of Orthodox Christian Clergy on their websites and who kidnap two Coptic Orthodox and Catholic clergy on their websites and who kidnap two Coptic Orthodox and Catholic hierarchs and their clergy assistants, leaving their fate unknown for several months as of this convention.

19. We proclaim our demand for the religious freedom throughout the world, especially for our Holy Orthodox Church and total support for all efforts to this end. In particular, we express our support for the Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew and the entire Patriarchate of Constantinople, which continually suffers discrimination and terrorist threat in the nation of Turkey.

St. Andrew Society
Souper Bowl Sunday
Submitted by Michael Komichak

For the past 23 years the St. Andrew Society has delivered critical assistance to those in need in Ukraine. In just the past three years the Society has provided nearly $50,000 to aid soup kitchens and orphanages in Ukraine. As a major ministry of the UOC of USA, the society supports soup kitchens that provide hot meals to the elderly in the cities of Kyiv, Pereyaslav-Khmelnytskyi, Chernivtsi, Ternopil and Chernihiv.

This year the St. Andrew Society established a relationship with LOGOS center, a homeless shelter in Kyiv. The Society helped LOGOS expand temporary housing for the homeless and contributed $5000 toward the construction of a new rehabilitation center and soup kitchen.

As in years past, the UOL encourages all UOC of USA parishes to become part of the work of the St. Andrew Society by organizing a “Souper Bowl Sunday” fundraising event during the month of February. During your weekly fellowship following Divine Liturgy serve some hot soup, explain the important work of the St. Andrew Society, and encourage your fellow parishioners to make a contribution to help the needy in Ukraine.

Your chapter could do something small like having a service to remember the innocent people that we lost, or you could do something big like a report or presentation. We are asking that your chapter send us the project or send us a picture of what you did as soon as possible. If you have any questions please contact Sarah Hershey at shershey19@gmail.com.

St. Andrew Society
Souper Bowl Sunday
Submitted by Michael Komichak

For the past 23 years the St. Andrew Society has delivered critical assistance to those in need in Ukraine. In just the past three years the Society has provided nearly $50,000 to aid soup kitchens and orphanages in Ukraine. As a major ministry of the UOC of USA, the society supports soup kitchens that provide food and shelter for the elderly in the cities of Kyiv, Pereyaslav-Khmelnytskyi, Chernivtsi, Ternopil and Chernihiv.

This year the St. Andrew Society established a relationship with LOGOS center, a homeless shelter in Kyiv. The Society helped LOGOS expand temporary housing for the homeless and contributed $5000 toward the construction of a new rehabilitation center and soup kitchen.

As in years past, the UOL encourages all UOC of USA parishes to become part of the work of the St. Andrew Society by organizing a “Souper Bowl Sunday” fundraising event during the month of February. During your weekly fellowship following Divine Liturgy serve some hot soup, explain the important work of the St. Andrew Society, and encourage your fellow parishioners to make a contribution to help the needy in Ukraine.

JUNIOR UOL HOLODOMOR COMMEMORATIONS Submitted by Sarah Hershey

The National Executive Board of the Junior UOL is asking all the Chapters throughout the country to participate in commemorating the Holodomor. Your chapter could do something small like having a service to remember the innocent people that we lost, or you could do something big like a report or presentation. We are asking that your chapter send us the project or send us a picture of what you did as soon as possible. If you have any questions please contact Sarah Hershey at shershey19@gmail.com.
St. Demetrius Jr. UOL Chapter

We have been very busy this new business year. We have held coffee hours after Divine Liturgy and even had a Halloween cupcake sale.

We are starting our plans for our annual Senior Citizens luncheon where we prepare a buffet luncheon for all the seniors of our parish (and any guests they wish to bring). We are also sending Christmas cards to our servicemen overseas.

At our parish’s annual St. Demetrius celebration, the entire Jr. Chapter presented a check for the St. Sophia’s Seminary Fund to Metropolitan Antony.

On behalf of all Lynn Sawchuk/Sharon Kuzbyt Scholarship recipients and donors, we extend our deepest sympathies to the family of William Kuzbyt, Sr.

May his Memory Be Eternal!

St. Vladimir Senior UOL Chapter

Thanksgiving Projects

This November for the first time our Senior UOL Chapter sponsored a special Thanksgiving Dinner. The dinner was held the week before Thanksgiving and Pani Laura Naumenko was the chairperson. The event was sponsored to benefit a young woman who had a significant spinal cord injury. Chapter members decided to sponsor a classic Thanksgiving Dinner with turkey, stuffing, potatoes, and cranberry. We were thrilled that we were able to raise over $1700 to benefit the young woman.

As part of our Thanksgiving Tithing project our chapters (both Junior and Senior) designated all of our proceeds from coffee hours during the month of November to benefit the UOL Thanksgiving Tithing Project.

As part of our Thanksgiving Tithing we also held a special Thanksgiving event. Our chapter made small packages with cookies and candies. The packets also had a small note where individuals could thank someone. All of the profits from the sale of these packets were donated to our Thanksgiving Tithing project. This project was wonderful for it allowed chapter members and also members of the parish to take a moment to think of the individuals whom they would like to thank and to honor them with a small token of appreciation.

You are cordially invited to the first Mid-Atlantic Deanery event!

On January 25, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. members of the Mid-Atlantic Deanery will be gathering at St. Vladimir’s in Philadelphia, Pa for our first ever Nativity Carol Sing-A-Long

We invite you to bring music for carols that you sing within your parish and join us for a sing-a-long.

Not a concert, but rather a time to get together and rejoice in song, celebrating the Nativity of our Lord.

We will gather at St. Vladimir’s, Philadelphia, share carols, and enjoy light refreshments.
